

The AIDS Committee of Ottawa (ACO) is searching for qualified applicants to volunteer on its Board of Directors and its sub-committees.

The Board of Directors is the governance body of the AIDS Committee of Ottawa. On behalf of the community, and representing the members of ACO, the Board provides the strategic direction and high level oversight for the organization to be successful in achieving its mission and goals.

The ACO strives to provide support, prevention, education and outreach services that promotes the holistic wellbeing of those living with, affected by, impacted by and at risk of HIV/AIDS in Ottawa. Detailed information about us can be found at www.aco-cso.ca.

We are looking for enthusiastic, committed and resourceful individuals with experience and knowledge in the following specific areas:

- Governance of non-profit organizations
- Financial Management
- Fundraising
- Policy Development
- Working in a volunteer based organization
- Government and stakeholder engagement
- Leadership development
- Advocacy
- Delivery of services to marginalized communities

Please note that we are always looking to increase the representation on our Board of individuals who are living with HIV. We also look to represent our client populations, and are looking for people who are from the African, Caribbean and Black populations, people from the Indigenous community, and people who are knowledgeable of and/or have lived experience of street involvement, homelessness and living with addictions.

Please forward your letter of interest and resume with the subject line “Board and Committee Nominations” to board@aco-cso.ca (Applicants selected for an interview will be requested to provide two references).
